Dear Mrs. Carlson:

The remains of your loved one have been permanently interred as recorded above among comrades who also gave their lives for their country. Customary military services were conducted over the grave at the time of burial.

Mrs. Dagny L. Carlson

Rockford, Illinois

Dear Mrs. Carlson:

Thank you for the information recently furnished the Army Effects Bureau in connection with the disposal of personal effects received for your husband, Private First Class Howard F. Carlson.

The damaged property which was the subject of prior correspondence was sent you on 8 March 1949 under separate cover by parcel post. In the event that this shipment is not received within a reasonable length of time, please notify this Bureau to enable tracer action.

I am inclosing a Bureau check in the amount of $4.00 representing the proceeds of conversion of mutilated US currency also recovered by the overseas Graves Registration Officer.

The transmittal of personal effects and funds by this Bureau does not, of itself, vest title in the recipient. Such property is forwarded for distribution in accordance with the laws of the state of decedent's legal residence.

I am glad to have been of service to you in this matter and wish to express my sincere regret of the circumstances prompting this correspondence.

Sincerely yours,

EXCHANGE OF PAPER CURRENCY

Paragraph 5. Lawfully held paper currency of the United States (including national bank notes and Federal Reserve bank notes in process of retirement and Federal Reserve notes) when not so mutilated that less than three-fifths of the original proportions remain, will be exchanged at its face amount. Such lawfully held paper currency, when so mutilated that less than three-fifths but clearly more than two-fifths of the original proportions remain, is exchangeable only by the Treasurer of the United States, at one-half the face amount of the whole note or certificate: Provided, however, That it may be exchanged at face amount upon compliance with the provisions of the following paragraph. Fragments not clearly more than two-fifths are not exchangeable, unless accompanied by the evidence required in the following paragraph.

Paragraph 6. Fragments less than three-fifths; when identifiable as to denomination, kind, and genuineness, are exchangeable at the face amount of the whole note, only by the Treasurer of the United States, when accompanied by satisfactory proof that the missing portions have been totally destroyed. This proof should be in the form of an affidavit from the owner setting forth that he is the owner and the cause and manner of destruction. If, however, the owner cannot of his own knowledge state the facts as to destruction, an affidavit or affidavits from any other person or persons having knowledge of the facts will also be required.

Paragraph 7. The affidavits must be subscribed and sworn to before a notary public or other officer authorized by law to administer oaths. Unless authenticated by the official impression seal of the officer, the affidavit should be accompanied by a certificate from the proper official, showing that the officer was in commission on the date of the acknowledgment. The date when the officer's commission expires should appear in any event. Should any affiant sign by mark (X), his signature must be witnessed by two persons besides the acknowledging officer, and the places of residence of the witnesses to the mark must be stated.

Paragraph 8. In addition to the affidavits, there should be furnished a certificate, to be executed, if possible, by an officer of an incorporated bank or trust company or by a public officer of the United States, setting forth that that officer has read the affidavits and that the affiants are reputable persons in the community and are, in the judgment of the officer, worthy of belief.

Paragraph 9. Blank forms for affidavits or certificates are not furnished. No relief is granted on account of currency totally destroyed.—The Treasurer of the United States will exercise such discretion under this regulation as may seem to him needful to protect the United States from fraud.

Paragraph 21. All counterfeit notes and coins found in remittances are canceled and delivered to the Secret Service Division of the Treasury Department or to the nearest local office of that division, a receipt for the same being forwarded to the sender. Communications with respect thereto should be addressed to the Chief, Secret Service Division, Treasury Department, Washington 25, D. C.

INSTRUCTIONS REGARDING THE PREPARATION OF BURNED PAPER CURRENCY TO BE FORWARDED TO THE TREASURER OF THE UNITED STATES

When paper currency has been burned do not disturb it or the fragments thereof any more than is absolutely essential. If the money was flat when burned, do not roll or fold it. If in a roll, do not attempt to unroll or straighten it out. If in a purse, box, or other container when burned, it should be left therein, if possible, in order to prevent the charred parts from being lost or reduced to mere ashes. If coin or any other metal should be with the currency when burned, carefully remove it; do not send coin in same package with burnt paper money. Charred fragments of currency must be of such size as to enable the special examiners in this office to identify the notes as to kind and denomination.

Currency so badly burned as to be more or less brittle or inclined to fall apart should be carefully packed in cotton and boxed as found, without, if possible, disturbing it in any manner. The special examiners usually have no difficulty in ascertaining the value of money when carefully packed and boxed as described, and as a result are often able to identify and make returns for currency which would otherwise be a total loss.

Send all burned paper money addressed as follows:

TREASURER OF THE UNITED STATES,

CURRENCY REDEMPTION DIVISION,

Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Sir:

There is inclosed herewith mutilated American currency which was received at this Bureau from an overseas Graves Registration Officer as a portion of the personal effects of Private First Class Howard F. Carlson, 36913052, deceased 7 June 1945 in the Pacific Ocean Area.

It will be noted that this currency is damaged in a manner which might prove objectionable to the recipient. There is no information available as to how this damage was incurred but, in view of the overseas source, is believed to have been recovered from the body of decedent at the time of disinterment under the Repatriation Program for deceased military personnel.

In order that the recipient may be spared any undesirable reaction, it is requested that the redemption value of the damaged currency be forwarded to this Bureau by means of Treasury check drawn payable to the Effects Quartermaster, Army Effects Bureau, Trustee, to enable further appropriate disposal.

Very truly yours,
